Target group

Kores Témperas ready to use poster paint is ideal for school, as well as hobby use. 12 bright, highly pigmented colours in a practical plastic case with compartments in the lid to mix colours. Kores Témperas come in 12ml aluminum tubes, and are the perfect introduction to painting. With this painting technique, the colors can be redissolved over and over again, which makes it possible to create very special blending effects and color gradients. They can be used on many different surfaces and are easily washed off so that the young artists can fully express their creativity.
