60W LIGHT WAND

FIVERAY V60 | 60W PORTABLE LIGHT WAND

The image shows two FIVERAY V60 lighting fixtures mounted on a black metal rig. The fixture on the left is silver and has its internal components exposed, showing a series of small lights arranged in a grid. The fixture on the right is black and has a solid, cylindrical design. Both fixtures are mounted on a horizontal bar. In the background, there are several out-of-focus circular light sources, suggesting a studio or stage environment. The overall lighting is warm and focused on the fixtures.

We understand the importance of lighting in the creative process. For the all-new FIVERAY V60, we are paving the way for a new vision in lighting and delivering exceptional performance in a compact and convenient package.
Join us on our journey to ensure that every detail of your creation is illuminated perfectly.

STAY COOL WHILE SHINING

Based on cutting-edge fluid dynamics and dynamic algorithms, the DynaVort Cooling System™ in the light includes gyroscope-modeled heat sinks and six FOC fans, expertly designed to prevent overheating while substantially enhancing airflow emissions.

Thanks to intelligent control, the cooling system ensures that efficiency remains consistently high with an outstanding cooling performance.

ALL GLOW UP FOR YOUR SHOTS

Illuminate every shot with ease, even in low-light environments. Whether you're shooting in a dimly lit space or outdoors at dusk, The high-illuminance lighting in V60 ensures that your shots are always crisp and vibrant. For more intense lighting, simply switch to MAX mode for an instant power surge of up to 100W.

*To activate 100W MAX mode, the light wand should be powered with a power cable.
